This annual event has become the highlight of the BBC Women's Ministry reaching women all across the metroplex. It is held the first Monday after Thanksgiving and provides an evening of Christmas spice just as the holiday hustle and bustle begins. Women enjoy delicious desserts and finger foods, music and caroling, and a guest speaker who reminds each person the "reason for the season."

Opportunities are available for table hosting and/or decorating, providing food, and inviting unchurched friends, neighbors and co-workers.
