Lose weight...find time...fix finally...break habit ...whew! Well, Happy New Year! Time to reflect on last year's list and consider what resolutions will be made in 2008. These lists, so often made in haste, could probably be better entitled, "Stuff I will at least try to do," and not, "I resolve." However, this year think more about daily commitments that God can bless at the end of twenty-four hours, not just 12 months. Whether your resolution is physical or more spiritual, experiencing the benefit sooner may encourage you to keep it up the entire year. Regardless, any resolution, long-term or short-term, should flow from the admonishment found in Psalm 37:5:

Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

I know if I can resolve to do this, then there is a better chance at looking back on 2008 as a journey of fulfillment, and not a road of good intentions.

BBC HAPPENINGS:

We would like to officially congratulate Jaris Roth as he begins his new duties this week, working full-time for Burleson Bible Church. He will continue to be responsible for the Worship and Sound Ministry as he has been faithfully doing for the past 12 years, and he will be handling additional administrative duties as required. Hopefully, we will have a title for his position soon so we can call him more than, "The guy who does the music and other things."

Welcome Jaris

Please submit newsletter items to the church office by January 24th. Thank you!

Dear BBC'ers:

Thank you so much for your most generous gift. The gift cards just happen to be for some of my favorite places! Your thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated. Y'all are truly special folks, and I am greatly blessed and thankful to have gotten to know you. I believe my time at BBC was God's plan, and I will remember it fondly. To use a "Golden Oldie" term, it was a warm fuzzy experience. Thanks to all of you for your friendship and support and for everything you did to make the job a pure delight for me. Thanks especially to those who signed the card. Your thoughts and warm wishes mean more to me than you can ever know. BBC will remain on my daily prayer list. May God continue to bless you abundantly.

Much love,

Shirley Carvajal
