

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Royal Wedding

The Royal Wedding is upon us. Hardly a day goes by that we don't hear some detail about the wedding, about the pomp and circumstance, about the elaborate plans for the ceremony and the party following. The press, desperately trying to find something fresh about the event, takes us down paths that seem, well, less than news worthy. One morning news story interviewed the girl who helped carry Princess Diana's wedding veil when she married Prince Charles in 1981. Now we see and hear all the details of the ceremony as they unfold.

Why all the hoopla?

A prince is getting married.

A nation's history is being written.

And the world is fascinated.

Did you know an even bigger wedding event is in the works? Not for a prince this time, but for a king. Here's the announcement:

Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready. It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Then he said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" (Rev. 19:7-9)

This wedding will make the Royal Wedding look like a dingy affair and we are part of it (the saints!). The challenge for me is, what am I doing to tell the world about this wedding, and am I "sending invitations" to the world around me? It will be an incredible event.
