

Living Good Lives in a Difficult World
I Peter 2:11-25

After Peter has clearly reminded us who we are, he now urges us on to right living in a difficult world. While many who do not believe will accuse us of doing wrong, we should continue to do what is right by doing good deeds, submitting to authority, and bearing up under unjust suffering.

- I. Living as Strangers in the World
 - A. Abstain from Sinful Desires
 - B. Live Good Lives
 - C. Do Good Deeds

- II. Submitting for the Lord's Sake
 - A. Instituted Authorities
 - B. Live as Free Men
 - C. Show Proper Respect

- III. Suffering and the Example of Jesus Christ
 - A. Bearing Unjust Suffering
 - B. The Example of Jesus Christ
 - C. The Great Passage of Christ's Suffering (Isaiah 53)